

Investing in Others

Acts 9–15

Living Generously

- A. Trusting in the power of grace (Acts 9)

- B. Rejecting prejudice that limits grace (Acts 12, 13, and 15)

- C. Extending grace after failure (Acts 15)

Do we have an inadequate view of what God's grace can accomplish in others (and in yourself)?

Are you trusting God's grace in the lives of others?

Notes:

For further study

Monday: Read Acts 9.1–15. Was Ananias' response reasonable?

Tuesday: Read Acts 9.17–31. How significant is Barnabas in Paul's life and ministry?

Wednesday: Read Acts 11.19–30. How did Barnabas encourage God's work in Paul and the Gentiles?

Thursday: Read Acts 15.1–20. How significant is Barnabas' testimony to the gospel's spread to Gentiles?

Friday: Read Acts 15.36–41. What was Barnabas willing to do for John Mark?

Saturday: Read 2 Timothy 4.6–22. What are the hazards of believing in others?
