2 Kings 2.23–25

Kevin Goldsmith

A. What did I miss?

B. Who is in the story?

C. Why did that happen?

Notes:

For further study

Monday: Read 1 Corinthians 2.11–16. How has your lack of understanding God’s wisdom affected your faith?

Tuesday: Read Isaiah 55.7–11. How does not understanding the purpose of God’s plans in your life bring you comfort and freedom?

Wednesday: Read Romans 11.33–36. How does God’s wisdom and knowledge affect the words you use in your prayers? How do you feel led to change them?

Thursday: Read Exodus 8.10, 14.4, 16.6; Matthew 7.20. Over 700 times “they will know I am the Lord” is used in scripture as a response to a judgment from God. Why is God so adamant about being known and how better recognize when he moves in your life?

Friday: Read Job 32.1–6. What is the proper response to not understanding God’s purposes? How does Job make this personal?

Saturday: Read 1 Timothy 2.1–8. The greatest revelation man has witnessed was Jesus on the cross and his resurrection. How do you continue to respond properly to that? What must change?
