

When We Disagree

Andy Wileman

A. The danger of dissension

(Proverbs 6.16–19; 17.19; 20.3; Galatians 5.13–15)

B. A case study in conflict

(Acts 15.36–39; 1 Corinthians 9.6; Colossians 4.10)

C. The law of love

(Leviticus 19.15–18; 1 Peter 3.8–12; 4.8)

When there is conflict, do you avoid or attack?

What issues cause you to lose relationships?

Notes:

For further study:

Monday:

Read Proverbs 6.16-19; 17.19; 20.3. How can disputes become dangerous?

Tuesday:

Read Galatians 5.13-15. How dangerous is division (15)?

Wednesday:

Read Acts 15.36-39; 1 Corinthians 9.6; Colossians 4.10. What can we learn from this?

Thursday:

Read Galatians 2.11-14. Is confrontation always wrong?

Friday:

Read Romans 14.1, 13-23. What is the rule for disputable matters?

Saturday:

Read Leviticus 19.15-18; 1 Peter 3.8-12; 4.8. What is the ultimate rule in disagreements?