Notes:

For further study:

- Monday: Read Romans 1.18–21. According to the Apostle Paul, what is the connection of personal praise and gratitude to one's relationship with God? How gratitude, or lack thereof, affect your faith?
- Tuesday: Read 2 Corinthians 9.6–11. If generosity can result in increased thanksgiving to God, could the opposite be true as well? Could it be that when we're stingy towards others, we rob God of thanksgiving because those we've blessed missed out on the opportunity to give thanks to God for your gift?
- Wednesday: Read Ephesians 1.16; 5.28. Who in your life do you need to thank God for? Who are those people, and what are those things, in your life that you find it most difficult to thank God for?
- Thursday: Read 1 Timothy 4.1–5. How does gratitude for God's good gifts serve defend us for us against false teaching or losing one's faith?
- Friday: Read 1 Thessalonians 5.16–18. What does Paul mean when he says to "give thanks in all circumstances"? Does a spirit of gratitude permeate your attitude?
- Saturday: Read Philippians 4.6. How can we be thankful even as we're asking God to answer our prayers? What does such gratitude say about how we view God?
