- a) Looking back in this passage, was there anything you heard for the first time or something that caught your attention, challenged you, or confused you?
- b) What command does Paul give to the church in Ephesus? Why is it important to “remember” our past condition? How are you encouraged by contrasting your past condition with your present position?
- c) Which of Paul’s three illustrations of the church (citizens, family, or temple) made the biggest impact on you? Why?
- d) How should this passage impact our view of the church’s importance in our life? How is a unified church a great witness to the unbelieving world?
