

Joseph:

the forgotten father

Matthew 1:18-25; Luke 2:21-24; Matthew 2:13-23

12.17.23

1) Joseph's Faith (Matthew 1:18-25)

2) Joseph's Obedience (Luke 2:21-24; Matthew 2:13-23)

3) Joseph's Legacy

Joseph:

the forgotten father

Matthew 1:18-25; Luke 2:21-24; Matthew 2:13-23

12.17.23

1) Joseph's Faith (Matthew 1:18-25)

2) Joseph's Obedience (Luke 2:21-24; Matthew 2:13-23)

3) Joseph's Legacy

Weekday Application Questions

- a) EQUIP — Review the verses that describe the life of Joseph. What most stands out to you (his righteous character, his mercy, his faith, his obedience, etc.)? Why?
- b) ENGAGE — Joseph was willing to suffer reputational harm for the sake of God and Mary. In what way is God calling you to sacrifice personal comfort and loss of reputation for the sake of others in the cause of Christ?
- c) EXALT — When Joseph heard the voice of God, he obeyed. Are you willing to obey the Lord, even when He asks you to do difficult things? What difficult calling is God impressing upon you today?
- d) Here is your “One Thing” for this week: Joseph was an ordinary man willing to be used by an extraordinary God. God is still calling ordinary people to be part of His extraordinary plan in the world. How might God use you to carry forward His mission in the world?

Weekday Application Questions

- a) EQUIP — Review the verses that describe the life of Joseph. What most stands out to you (his righteous character, his mercy, his faith, his obedience, etc.)? Why?
- b) ENGAGE — Joseph was willing to suffer reputational harm for the sake of God and Mary. In what way is God calling you to sacrifice personal comfort and loss of reputation for the sake of others in the cause of Christ?
- c) EXALT — When Joseph heard the voice of God, he obeyed. Are you willing to obey the Lord, even when He asks you to do difficult things? What difficult calling is God impressing upon you today?
- d) Here is your “One Thing” for this week: Joseph was an ordinary man willing to be used by an extraordinary God. God is still calling ordinary people to be part of His extraordinary plan in the world. How might God use you to carry forward His mission in the world?