

EXALT:

Shepherds, Sheep, and the Serpent.

First Peter 5:1-11
Dr. Jace Cloud, Senior Pastor

10.06.24

Notes

1) The Scripture

A) The Shepherds (1 Peter 5:1-4)

B) The Sheep (1 Peter 5:5-7)

C) The Serpent and the Suffering (1 Peter 5:8-11)

2) The Strategy

EXALT:

Shepherds, Sheep, and the Serpent.

First Peter 5:1-11
Dr. Jace Cloud, Senior Pastor

10.06.24

Notes

1) The Scripture

A) The Shepherds (1 Peter 5:1-4)

B) The Sheep (1 Peter 5:5-7)

C) The Serpent and the Suffering (1 Peter 5:8-11)

2) The Strategy

Weekday Application Questions

EQUIP — How does Peter's exhortation to church elders impact your understanding of church leadership? What other Bible passages discuss the role of elders (and deacons)?

ENGAGE — In Peter's original context, what does it mean that the devil prowls around like a roaring lion? In what ways does he do so in our world today? What are some ways you can be more spiritually alert to the dangers of the enemy in your life?

EXALT— Why is it important that Peter emphasizes the role of the Chief Shepherd in verse 4? How does that help us understand how leadership dynamics within a church should function? How does the promise that God will "restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish" you provide hope?

Here is your "One Thing" for this week: How can you respond to the sermon's call to be shepherded by the elders? As you envision this relationship, what does it look like? What specifics come to mind? What would be spiritually beneficial to you?

Weekday Application Questions

EQUIP — How does Peter's exhortation to church elders impact your understanding of church leadership? What other Bible passages discuss the role of elders (and deacons)?

ENGAGE — In Peter's original context, what does it mean that the devil prowls around like a roaring lion? In what ways does he do so in our world today? What are some ways you can be more spiritually alert to the dangers of the enemy in your life?

EXALT— Why is it important that Peter emphasizes the role of the Chief Shepherd in verse 4? How does that help us understand how leadership dynamics within a church should function? How does the promise that God will "restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish" you provide hope?

Here is your "One Thing" for this week: How can you respond to the sermon's call to be shepherded by the elders? As you envision this relationship, what does it look like? What specifics come to mind? What would be spiritually beneficial to you?