

Word of the Year 2025
Dr. Jace Cloud, Senior Pastor
Matthew 7:7-11

01.05.25

1) The Promise (7:7-8)

2) The Parenting Analogy (7:9-11)

Word of the Year 2025
Dr. Jace Cloud, Senior Pastor
Matthew 7:7-11

01.05.25

1) The Promise (7:7-8)

2) The Parenting Analogy (7:9-11)

3) Weekday Application Questions

A) EQUIP — What are the main promises found in Matthew 7:7-11 regarding prayer and asking from God? In what ways does this passage highlight God’s generosity and willingness to give good gifts? How do we reconcile this passage with the times when we pray and don’t receive what we ask for?

B) ENGAGE — Who are some unbelievers for whom you can pray for their salvation in 2025?

C) EXALT — How does this passage depict the relationship between God as a Father and us as His children? How can the assurance that God gives good gifts encourage us when we pray?

D) Here is your “One Thing” for this week: Pick your “Word of the Year” for 2025. Pray big! Feel free to email your “word” to Pastor Jace, and he will join you in your prayer for the year.

3) Weekday Application Questions

A) EQUIP — What are the main promises found in Matthew 7:7-11 regarding prayer and asking from God? In what ways does this passage highlight God’s generosity and willingness to give good gifts? How do we reconcile this passage with the times when we pray and don’t receive what we ask for?

B) ENGAGE — Who are some unbelievers for whom you can pray for their salvation in 2025?

C) EXALT — How does this passage depict the relationship between God as a Father and us as His children? How can the assurance that God gives good gifts encourage us when we pray?

D) Here is your “One Thing” for this week: Pick your “Word of the Year” for 2025. Pray big! Feel free to email your “word” to Pastor Jace, and he will join you in your prayer for the year.