

THE BOOK OF

REVELATION:

The Final Countdown

01.26.25

A Glimpse Into Glory

Revelation 4:1-11

Dr. Jace Cloud, Senior Pastor

1) The Invitation (4:1)

2) The Throne (4:2-3,5-6a)

3) The Four Living Creatures (4:6b-8)

4) The Twenty-Four Elders (4:4, 9-11)

THE BOOK OF

REVELATION:

The Final Countdown

01.26.25

A Glimpse Into Glory

Revelation 4:1-11

Dr. Jace Cloud, Senior Pastor

1) The Invitation (4:1)

2) The Throne (4:2-3,5-6a)

3) The Four Living Creatures (4:6b-8)

4) The Twenty-Four Elders (4:4, 9-11)

5) Weekday Application Questions

a) EQUIP — How would you summarize the atmosphere around God’s throne as depicted in this passage? If you could describe heaven in just one word based on this passage, what would it be and why?

b) ENGAGE — Knowing that the redeemed in heaven will include people from “every tribe and tongue and people and nation,” how should this affect our philosophy of missions?

c) EXALT — If worship is ultimately a matter of what we value above all else, of what we consider worthy of our ultimate attention, affection, and adoration, then what things/people/etc. do you need to guard against “worshiping”?

d) Here is your “One Thing” for this week: How does this passage encourage you to view God’s holiness and majesty differently? What are some practical steps you can take to cultivate a greater sense of worship in your own life that mirrors the worship happening in heaven?

5) Weekday Application Questions

a) EQUIP — How would you summarize the atmosphere around God’s throne as depicted in this passage? If you could describe heaven in just one word based on this passage, what would it be and why?

b) ENGAGE — Knowing that the redeemed in heaven will include people from “every tribe and tongue and people and nation,” how should this affect our philosophy of missions?

c) EXALT — If worship is ultimately a matter of what we value above all else, of what we consider worthy of our ultimate attention, affection, and adoration, then what things/people/etc. do you need to guard against “worshiping”?

d) Here is your “One Thing” for this week: How does this passage encourage you to view God’s holiness and majesty differently? What are some practical steps you can take to cultivate a greater sense of worship in your own life that mirrors the worship happening in heaven?