

You Can't Always Get What You Want:
Receiving the King We Need
Matthew 21:1-11
Dr. Jace Cloud, Senior Pastor

04.13.25

Notes

1) Behold Your King (The Text)

A) The King Who Comes in Peace (1-5)

B) The King Who Deserves Praise (6-9)

C) The King Who Confronts Presuppositions (10-11)

2) Respond to the King on His Terms (Our Application)

You Can't Always Get What You Want:
Receiving the King We Need
Matthew 21:1-11
Dr. Jace Cloud, Senior Pastor

04.13.25

Notes

1) Behold Your King (The Text)

A) The King Who Comes in Peace (1-5)

B) The King Who Deserves Praise (6-9)

C) The King Who Confronts Presuppositions (10-11)

2) Respond to the King on His Terms (Our Application)

3) Weekday Application Questions

a) EQUIP — Study Zechariah 9:9, Psalm 118:25-26, and Matthew 21 side-by-side. How do these Old Testament passages enrich your understanding of what happened on Palm Sunday?

b) ENGAGE — The people wanted a king on their own terms. How does this reflect the way people today respond to Jesus? In what ways can we lovingly challenge friends or family members who have misconceptions about Jesus?

c) EXALT — Make plans to attend our Holy Week services this week.

d) Here is your “One Thing” for this week: Ask Jesus to confront one of your presuppositions about who He is—and submit it to Him. Praise Jesus not just for what you hope He’ll do—but for who He already is.

3) Weekday Application Questions

a) EQUIP — Study Zechariah 9:9, Psalm 118:25-26, and Matthew 21 side-by-side. How do these Old Testament passages enrich your understanding of what happened on Palm Sunday?

b) ENGAGE — The people wanted a king on their own terms. How does this reflect the way people today respond to Jesus? In what ways can we lovingly challenge friends or family members who have misconceptions about Jesus?

c) EXALT — Make plans to attend our Holy Week services this week.

d) Here is your “One Thing” for this week: Ask Jesus to confront one of your presuppositions about who He is—and submit it to Him. Praise Jesus not just for what you hope He’ll do—but for who He already is.