

THE BOOK OF

REVELATION:

The Final Countdown

08.03.25

Home at Last

Revelation 21-22:5

Dr. Jace Cloud, Senior Pastor

Notes:

1) The New Heaven and New Earth (21:1-8)

2) The New Jerusalem (21:9-21)

3) The New Temple (21:22-27)

4) The New Garden (22:1-5)

THE BOOK OF

REVELATION:

The Final Countdown

08.03.25

Home at Last

Revelation 21-22:5

Dr. Jace Cloud, Senior Pastor

Notes:

1) The New Heaven and New Earth (21:1-8)

2) The New Jerusalem (21:9-21)

3) The New Temple (21:22-27)

4) The New Garden (22:1-5)

5) Weekday Application Questions

a) EQUIP — Trace the storyline of God dwelling with man from Genesis to Revelation. From Eden, to the tabernacle, to the incarnation, to the Spirit, to the New Jerusalem—how does this biblical thread reshape your understanding of the whole story of Scripture?

b) ENGAGE — This week, look for a natural opportunity to share a hopeful, biblical view of eternity. Use language from Revelation 21–22 to contrast God’s eternal kingdom with the brokenness of this world.

c) EXALT — Spend time this week reading Revelation 21–22 aloud during personal worship. Let the imagery lead you into praise—especially for Christ, the Lamb who makes all things new.

d) Here is your “One Thing” for this week: For the next 7 days, spend 10 minutes each morning reflecting on one part of the New Creation—The New Heaven and Earth, The New Jerusalem, The New Temple, or The New Garden. Each day, ask yourself: “How does the world to come give me hope today?” Write your answers down. Let this passage shape your decisions, your mood, and your conversations.

5) Weekday Application Questions

a) EQUIP — Trace the storyline of God dwelling with man from Genesis to Revelation. From Eden, to the tabernacle, to the incarnation, to the Spirit, to the New Jerusalem—how does this biblical thread reshape your understanding of the whole story of Scripture?

b) ENGAGE — This week, look for a natural opportunity to share a hopeful, biblical view of eternity. Use language from Revelation 21–22 to contrast God’s eternal kingdom with the brokenness of this world.

c) EXALT — Spend time this week reading Revelation 21–22 aloud during personal worship. Let the imagery lead you into praise—especially for Christ, the Lamb who makes all things new.

d) Here is your “One Thing” for this week: For the next 7 days, spend 10 minutes each morning reflecting on one part of the New Creation—The New Heaven and Earth, The New Jerusalem, The New Temple, or The New Garden. Each day, ask yourself: “How does the world to come give me hope today?” Write your answers down. Let this passage shape your decisions, your mood, and your conversations.