4) Weekday Application Questions:

a) EQUIP — Trace the theme of worship across the Bible. How do passages like Exodus 40 (Tabernacle), 1 Kings 8 (Temple), John 4 (Spirit and truth), Acts 2 (early church), Zechariah 14 (Millennium), and Revelation 21–22 (New Heaven & Earth) show the centrality of gathered worship? How should that shape your view of Sunday mornings?

b) ENGAGE — How can your attitude, joy, and seriousness in corporate worship serve as a witness to your friends, children, or guests who visit our church?

c) EXALT — If in the Millennium even “cooking pots” are holy, how can you dedicate ordinary areas of your life to God this week? Identify one daily task (work, meals, sports, chores) and consciously offer it as worship to the Lord.

d) Here is your “One Thing” for this week: Since all nations will one day worship the King, let us live now as people whose whole lives are marked “Holy to the LORD”—prioritizing His gathered worship, practicing His presence in daily life, and anticipating the day when every knee will bow.
